MERCHANTS ARE ENTHUSED OVER REJUVENATED ASSOCIATION

S. O. S. Distress Call is Flashed Through Mails and Members Respond Nobly at Meeting.

LARGEST CROWD IN MONTHS

Plans Are Laid to Bring Airship Here For First "Big Wednesday," July 10.

COMMITTEES ARE APPOINTED

Active Campaign to Get New Members is Mapped Out—Name is Unchanged.

The members of the Rushville Merchants Association were inoculated with enthusiasm last night. They were all shouting and boosting for Rushville. The special meeting last night was the most satisfying one held in three months. In fact it is about the first in that period there has been a quorum present. Thirty members in good standing turned out last night and everyone of them wanted the association to stand on its feet.

The association has been hanging by a thread for a few months. Yesterday the S. O. S. was flashed through the mails and the faithful thirty who have the interest of Rushville at heart responded. They were the liveliest bunch of Rushville boosters that has congregated in this city in many a month.

In the first place they were all unanimous in a "Big Wednesday." "That's what we want, another 'Big Wednesday,' shouted one member when the subject was mentioned. "All that is necessary is to set the date," declared another.

"We can't get along without our bargain days," asserted still another business man.

When the sentiment of the meeting was soon voiced, the next question was to settle on a date for the first one. This was easily done. It will be July 10, and next Wednesday evening another special meeting will be held to prepare for the popular bargain days.

But there is one feature of that day which has already been decided. It is that an attempt shall be made to get a birdman here as the feature attraction of the "Big Wednesday." There is every reason to believe that this plan will be carried out. Roy Jones suggested that an airship be the main attraction, and he voiced the sentiment of the meeting when he made such a suggestion.

Last night's meeting was the first one at which the newly elected officers presided. This being the case, President H. G. Hackman announced his appointments on the permanent committees.

The proposal to change the name of the association was the last subject of importance discussed at the last regular meeting held and that topic was the first one considered last night. Although no vote was taken it was the sense of the meeting that the name should remain the same.

Another important thing decided was that an active campaign for new members should be started. The new committee will meet tonight and prepare a letter to be sent to the men of the city.

The question of a change in title was brought up by President Hackman. F. E. Wolcott said he thought it unnecessary to change the name at this time. He said the Rushville Retail Merchants Association would

MAY MOVE TO EUROPE

St. Paul Physician and Wife Plan to Select Foreign Home.

Israel D. Jewett and wife, wealthy residents of St. Paul are preparing to take an extended trip through Europe with a view to living in that country. They are offering the whole of their property for sale. Among their holdings is 1,560 acres of land, one thousand of which is in a cotton plantation in Mississippi. Mr. Jewett is also owner of the Jewett telephone system in St. Paul. Mrs. Jewett was recently ordered back to the insane hospital on the recommendation of a physician who alleged that she was a person of unsound mind. She was at one time confined in a hospital for treatment but was released as cured. She at once began habeas corpus proceedings and the matter is in court.

HOOSIER AUTHOR WILL VISIT HERE

Meredith Nicholson of Indianapolis Will be Guest of Joe Cowing in Near Future.

PREPARING FOR NEW BOOK

Meredith Nicholson of Indianapolis the well known Hoosier author who has written so many popular novels, will be the guest of Joe Cowing here within the next few weeks. Mr. Nicholson has had a standing invitation to visit with the Rushville man for some time and he has sent word that he will take advantage of it in the near future. Mr. Cowing and the writer have been associated in the work of the State Board of Charities and have come to be very good friends.

And Meredith Nicholson has a purpose in coming to Rushville. He is now preparing subject matter for a book which he will write soon. It is to deal with life in Hoosierdom. He wishes to be in Rushville some Saturday afternoon and witness the street scenes here at that time. It may be that some local color and local characters will be worked into the manuscript. Mr. Nicholson's last novel was "The Hoosier Chronicle." It deals with Indiana life and has already had a large sale in this State as well as in other places.

CHILD DIES IN CONVULSIONS

Daughter of Elmer Headlee Expires of Spinal Meningitis.

Mary M. Headlee, twenty-three months old, died suddenly at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Headlee in Orange township yesterday of a complication of pneumonia and spinal meningitis. The end came after twenty-four hours of intense suffering, as the child was continuously in convulsions, the case being as baffling one to the family physician. The infant is survived by two sisters and two brothers, Irene, Inez, Herbert and Marshall. The funeral services will be held at the house Saturday morning at ten o'clock, the Rev. J. A. Jones officiating, and the interment will be made in the Hamilton

M. R. M'DANIEL RESIGNS HERE

Popular High School Principal Goes to Oak Park High School in Chicago Suburb.

O. D. TYNER TO SUCCEED HIM

New Position Much Sought One and Carries With it Large Salary Increase.

Announcement is made today of the appointment of Prof. M. R. McDaniel as assistant principal of the Oak Park Illinois high school. The matter has been pending for some time but definite announcement was not made until today. A visit was recently made here by Prof. John Calvin Hannah, the principal of the Oak Park schools and intimate friends knew that the appointment was in prospect, but it was not definitely known until yesterday upon the return of Prof. McDaniel from Chicago.

The many friends and acquaintances of Prof. and Mrs. M. R. McDaniel, while rejoicing with them and the good fortune that has come to Prof. McDaniel, will greatly regret to learn that they will soon remove from Rushville.

Oak Park is a wealthy and aristocratic suburb of Chicago, where many of the most prominent people of the city live. Its schools are noted all over the United States in educational circles. Prof. Hannah, who has charge of the schools is well known in the affairs of the National Teachers Association. He is also widely known and prominent in the affairs of the Beta Theta Pi college fraternity.

The place to which Prof. McDaniel has been appointed at a large increase of salary over that paid here is one of the much sought after places in this part of the country and there were a large number of applicants from all over the United States for the position. No teaching will be required of Prof. McDaniel and the position is an administrative one, similar to that of superintendents in this State. He will have two stenographers, and no detail work whatever.

Prof. McDaniel has been in Rushville between eight and nine years, coming here from Sidney, Ohio. He holds an A. B. degree from Granger College, and a bachelor of science degree from Chicago University. He also has a master of science degree from Chicago University, which he has taken during the last few years, doing work in the summer semester. Prof. McDaniel has always been noted for his fine teaching and administrative ability and has been deservedly popular among the pupils and patrons of the high school.

Mrs. McDaniel was at one time instructor of music in the city schools and has been prominent in musical circles in Rushville for many years. She was soprano soloist in the Main Street Christian church many years and will be sadly missed both in musical and society circles.

Prof. and Mrs. McDaniel will remove to Oak Park about August 1. Rushville's loss in the removal of these two estimable young people will be Oak Park's gain and the congratulations of friends to Prof. McDaniel on his promotion will be tinged with regret at their going.

The school board announced today that Prof. O. D. Tyner who has had charge of the mathematics department has been selected as principal to succeed Prof. McDaniel. Prof. Tyner is both popular and efficient in his teaching here and the appointment will meet the approval of every body who knows him and his wife.

WATSON HOME FROM CHICAGO

Spends Day in Seclusion of Home and Will Return to Convention City Sunday.

STORIES OF HIS ATTITUDE

Correspondents Write That Former Congressman is Working in Interests of Harmony.

James E. Watson arrived home this morning from Chicago, where the national committee is in session deciding contests on delegates to the Republican national convention which meets next Wednesday. Mr. Watson remained in the seclusion of his home all day. He will return to Chicago Sunday night.

All sorts of stories have emanated from Chicago in special dispatches to various newspapers concerning the attitude of Mr. Watson in regard to the two candidates that are seeking the nomination at the hands of the Republican party.

The Anderson Herald, a rampant Roosevelt organ, carries a dispatch to the effect that Mr. Watson spent one day at Chicago buttonholing delegates and telling them they should get together on a third candidate. Mr. Watson is one of the four delegates-at-large from Indiana who are pledged to support Taft. His seat in the convention was contested by Roosevelt men, but the national committee, it will be remembered, seated the Taft delegates who were elected regularly.

The former congressman has assumed a neutral attitude to a large degree in the pre-convention campaign. He has been requested a number of times to go into several States to speak in favor of the administration but has held aloft from the battle between the two candidates.

The Indianapolis Sun correspondent who is in Chicago writes that the local Republican is an optimist, but that he tempers well his optimism.

Watson has beaten Senator Crawford Kennedy's record as a convention fan, says the correspondent.

"My father took me to my first convention when I was 11 years old," Mr. Watson said, "and I heard the wonderful oration of Ingersoll in nominating James G. Blain. I became fired with a desire never to miss a Republican national convention, and thus far I always have managed to get a ticket."

TO HAUL KIDS IN AUTOS

Capt. Cook Asks Owners Assistance to Entertain Children.

The Salvation Army captain will put the kettle on the street tomorrow to receive donations to defray the expenses of the outing that is planned for the poor children of the city next Wednesday at the fair ground. The captain is anxious to have several automobile owners donate the use of their machines to treat the children to a ride to and from the grounds. Children who want tickets for the frolic are asked to get them at the Army church Sunday afternoon. More provisions are needed, Capt. Cook says.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Fraisher have a new telephone. The number is 1549, the same as that which was formerly in the home of T. E. McDaniel.

DISMISS PROVOKE CASE

Prosecutor Quashes Affidavit Against Mrs. Anna Yazel.

The case of the State vs. Mrs. Anna Yazel for provoke was dismissed on a motion by the prosecutor last evening when it came up for trial before Mayor Black. The case was the outgrowth of a neighborhood quarrel and the affidavit was filed by Mrs. Kate McCarty. The official after investigating found that there was no case against Mrs. Yazel and the dismissal followed. The defendant was not arrested but summoned to appear before the mayor.

ALUMNI BANQUET POSTPONED TODAY

Because of Many Counter Attractions Annual Event Will Not be Held Until June 26.

53 PLATES ALREADY ORDERED

The annual banquet of the Rushville high school, which was to have been held in the basement of the Main Street Christian church next Wednesday evening, has been postponed for a week. It will take place at the same place Wednesday evening, June 26 at six-thirty o'clock. It was decided today by the committee in charge that it would be the wisest plan to follow to change the date because of so many conflicting things which will keep graduates of the high school away from the banquet. Two weddings in which Rushville young people are highly interested will take place on that night, and a number of college commencements will be held on that day which will take a number of people, who would otherwise attend, out of the city. Alumni who have already signified their intentions of coming will have opportunity to reorder their plates. Orders for fifty-three plates have already been received.

HOPKINS MAKES HIS GETAWAY GOOD

Kentuckian Who Shot Lee Somers Wednesday Not Yet Located by Sheriff Bebout.

BELIEVED HE WILL BE CAUGHT

No clue as to the whereabouts of William Hopkins, the Kentuckian of northern Rush county who shot and seriously injured Lee Somers, his neighbor, late Wednesday afternoon, has been received by Sheriff Bebout. The authorities here believe, however, that Hopkins will eventually be caught as he will most likely wander to the home of some relatives and his identity will be learned by police who have been notified that he is wanted. It is now believed that the trip to Rushville yesterday of Walter Hopkins, the son of the man who is wanted, was nothing more than to throw the officers off the trail of his father. He told a nice story of his efforts to get his father to surrender, and that a brother of his had brought his father to the corporation line here so he could give himself up.

The man who was shot in the back by Hopkins rested very easily last night and is so much improved today that it is believed he will recover. The two men had a dispute over the

ASSEMBLY NOT FAR IN FUTURE

Lecturers of Note and Four Musical Organizations on This Year's Chautauqua Program.

ONE GRAND OPERA COMPANY

Gov. Hoch, George R. Stuart and Gov. Glenn Only Few of Treats Offered.

The ninth annual Rush County chautauqua is not far in the distance. It will be held this year in the coliseum in the city park, beginning August fourth, and continuing until Sunday, August eleventh.

The talent this year promises to excel that of other assemblies in the county. Such men as George R. Stuart, E. W. Hoch, former governor of Kansas, Ralph Bingham, the noted humorist, Mrs. Lenora M. Lake, the famous Irish born woman orator who is one of the few that has made good in chautauqua work, and R. B. Glenn, former governor of North Carolina.

The musical companies compare if not surpass the musical talent that has been offered in previous chautauquas in Rushville. Jesse Pugh and his company of talented players will be here two days and will give one full concert. It will be the first time the Rushville man will have appeared before a Rushville audience since he has made secure his position on the Lyceum stage.

The Orpheans, a male quartet par excellent, will be here for two days. The Kellogg-Haines singing party is another musical attraction which will be here for two days. The Bertha Wooden Orchestra, which will be here two days, comprises the musical organizations.

The chautauqua management expects to put forth additional efforts this year to induce people attending the assembly to camp in the city park. The park is an ideal place for camping. In past years this feature has been tried to some extent by people who attend the chautauqua.

The Rush county teachers institute will be held this year in conjunction with the chautauqua. When the summer assembly was first instituted here the two were held together, but later they were separated and held at different times. Last year the teachers in their annual institute here voted to meet in the mornings of the days the chautauqua is held. In this way the same lecturer can be used by both the chautauqua and the institute in some cases.

The lecturer for the opening Sunday has not yet been obtained. The committee on talent is working diligently to get a man that will come up to the standard that has already been set for the opening day of the assembly.

The Bertha Wooden orchestra of Battle Creek, Mich., will come the first day for a two days' stay. The orchestra will furnish the preludes for the Sunday lectures, and for Monday afternoon and Sunday night it will give a complete concert.

Prof. Paul M. Pearson of Swarthmore will lecture Monday afternoon. He will be one of the institute lecturers. Prof. Pearson gives what is known in chautauqua as lecture recitals on literary subjects. He will probably give a course of these and will be on several afternoons during the week.

Tuesday will be one of the banner days of the week. Gov. R. B. Glenn will be here for two lectures, one in the afternoon and one at night. For two years the chautauqua management has been endeavoring to get Gov. Glenn. He has an enviable reputation as a chautauqua lecturer.

FAILED TO HEED WARNING GIVEN

National Organizer of Social Laborites Mobbed.

HE ATTACKED THE CATHOLICS

This Proved More Than the Temper of a Street Crowd of Butte Miners Could Stand, and Carlson Only Escaped With His Life by Running Into a Nearby Theater, Where He Was Rescued by the Police.

Butte, Mont., June 14.—While making a street speech last night, Carlson of Tacoma, national organizer of the Socialist Labor party, was mobbed and only escaped with his life by running into a theater on Park street, where he hid until rescued by the police and taken to prison for protection. For some nights Industrial Workers of the World speakers have been denouncing the government and the flag on the streets, but were not molested until they attempted their attacks on the Catholic church. Then they were hustled out of town to avoid violence. Carlson when he appeared last night was warned as to what he might expect. The streets were crowded with miners and other laboring men who had been celebrating miners' union day. A small band of men listened to Carlson until he referred to the Catholic church as the biggest enemy of the workingman and declared that the church was fighting Socialism because if Socialism prevailed the church would be put out of business. He said he would mention "some of the rottenness of the Catholic church," and as he said that, someone pulled from under him the box on which he had been standing. As he fell someone struck him and the crowd rushed upon him and kicked him, but he escaped to the sidewalk and into the theater.

Don't hide your freckles under a veil; get an ounce of othine and remove them. Even the first night's use will show a wonderful improvement, some of the lighter freckles vanishes entirely. It is absolutely harmless, and cannot injure the most tender skin.

Be sure to ask any first class druggist for the double strength othine; it is this that is sold on the money back guarantee.

SOPHIE WRIGHT LEFT RICH LEGACY BEHIND

Most Beloved Woman in the South Is Dead.

New Orleans, June 14.—One of the most beloved women in the south, Miss Sophie B. Wright, often referred to as "New Orleans's foremost citizen," is dead of heart disease.

Miss Wright was known all over the country as a leader in education and as one of the deepest thinkers among the women of the south. She was not only admired for her high attainments as a teacher and as a leader, but she was beloved by thousands of people in New Orleans and throughout the south. She was prominent in most of the things that concerned the welfare of the city and state. Her school, the Home Institute, has become one of the most successful among the girls' schools of the south.

Sophie Wright was a cripple and went around in a steel harness and on crutches. She was so poor that she taught all day in a private school to earn money to maintain her free school at night. Yet she came to be known as the "first citizen of New Orleans," and to be described as "leading the most effective and the most beautiful life New Orleans has known in this generation."

SUGGESTIVE QUESTIONS.

(Copyright, 1911, by Rev. T. S. Linscott, D. D.)

Christ's Witness to John the Baptist. Matt. xii. 19.

Golden Text—Among them that are born of women there is none greater than John, yet he that is but little in the kingdom of God is greater than he. Luke vii. 28.

(1.) Verse 2—What had John done to be in prison?

(2.) Verse 3—What do you think had produced doubt in the mind of John concerning the Messiahship of Christ?

(3.) What, if anything, was there in Christ's manner of life that would be liable to make John doubt?

(4.) What are the causes which often produce doubt in the minds of good men on matters of which at other times they have been certain, as in the cases of Elijah and John?

(5.) Verses 4-6—At what point did John need most to be strengthened?

(6.) What did Jesus consider to be the supreme proof of his mission?

(7.) What today are the proofs for the divinity of Christ's mission and gospel?

(8.) Verses 7-8—What special scenes or demonstrations had attended John's preaching in the wilderness?

(9.) In what respect was John unlike "a reed shaken with the wind"?

(10.) What sort of clothing did John wear?

(11.) What significance is there in the fact that Jesus and John were not alike in their manner of dress?

(12.) Verses 9-10—In what respect was John more than a prophet? (This is one of the questions which may be answered in writing by members of the club.)

(13.) What is the evidence that Mal-thias, from which Jesus quotes, refers to John and Jesus?

(14.) As a matter of fact how did John prepare the way for Jesus?

(15.) Verse 11—What did Jesus mean by saying that there had not arisen one greater than John the Baptist, but that the least in the kingdom of heaven was greater than he?

(16.) Verses 12-13—How did the great revival produced by John's preaching resemble soldiers storming a city?

(17.) Why can no power in heaven or earth or hell keep a really determined man out of heaven?

(18.) Verse 14—John no doubt had the spirit and power of Elijah and was planned by God to be the forerunner of Christ. What, if any, evidence is there that God plans every man for a specific work and gives him the power to do it?

(19.) Verse 15—What qualities are necessary to understand spiritual truth?

(20.) Why are spiritual hearing and sight—to hear God and see him—possible for all?

(21.) Verses 16-19—Why does God direct or allow equally good men to adopt such different outward modes of life?

(22.) What was the real reason which caused so many to reject the preaching of both John and Jesus? Lesson for Sunday, June 23, 1912. The Penitent Woman. Luke vii. 36-50.

TOPIC FOR JUNE 16.

The Duty of Being Pleasant.—Ps. 133:1-3.

Pleasantness can be made a habit; it is a duty to practice it until it becomes a habit. The world has no use for chronic pessimists.

The truly pleasant man draws his pleasure from within and above. He is not affected by changes in weather or changes in fortune. It is easy enough to look pleasant when everything goes as it should, but it is a duty which we owe to those around us to be pleasant, even in time of adversity.

We can afford to be selfish with our troubles. The man who continually seeks to share his burdens with others simply adds to the total amount of unhappiness in the world without in any way helping himself. It is an accomplishment worth while to be able to "grin and bear it." Pleasant people are popular people. It is natural to seek the sunshine and everyone gravitates toward the man who possesses sunny qualities. We feel better and we work better because of association with one who knows how to look on the bright side of life.

If we derive blessings from the pleasantness of others it is our duty to pass on these blessings to those with whom we come in contact. And, like the man who casts his bread upon the waters, we will find that pleasantness thus invested will bring dividends worth while. Our investment will return to us many fold in health and happiness and prosperity. "Pleasantness comes only where God commands the blessing; there is no blessing where there is no God." Only the feeling of constant fellowship with the Master can afford the strength for true pleasantness in time of adversity. And that source of pleasantness is open to any who will receive it.

SEASONABLE DISHES.

Try a cream of soup with a cup of grated cheese added just before serving. Such a soup is sufficiently nourishing, with a little bread, for a well balanced meal.

Parsnips make a good soup if carefully made, adding a cup of the pulp put through a sieve to a cream or milk soup.

A most attractive salad is one prepared with celery hearts cut crosswise, tips of blanched asparagus and a few strips of canned red pepper (pimentoes). Serve with French dressing on lettuce leaves.

Nut Muffins.—Mix and sift together one and a half cups of flour, a teaspoonful of salt and three teaspoonfuls of baking powder, a tablespoonful of sugar. Beat until light one egg, add three-fourths of a cup of milk and stir it into the flour mixture. Beat well, then add a half cup of broken walnut meats and three tablespoonfuls of melted butter. Fill buttered muffin pans two-thirds full and bake.

A new way of keeping bread and cake fresh is to use a wet sponge in the box. Lay the sponge in a saucer so that it will not come in contact with the bread.

German Almond Cookies.—Beat the yolks of six eggs until lemon colored; add a cup and a half of sugar beaten to a cream with three-fourths of a cup of softened butter. Add a cup of blanched and chopped almonds, a tablespoonful of cinnamon and three cups of flour. Beat hard and drop by spoonfuls on a buttered sheet, putting an almond on the top of each cake. Bake in a moderate oven.

Baked Corn With Minced Meat.—Take two cups of corn, add a cup of minced meat, chicken or any that is at hand, add a half cup of milk, an egg well beaten, salt and pepper and cover with bread crumbs, and bake.

The pretty girl waits to take her pick—and the homely girl beats her to it.

INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

(By E. O. SELLERS, Director of Evening Department, The Moody Bible Institute of Chicago.)

LESSON FOR JUNE 16.

CHRIST'S WITNESS TO JOHN THE BAPTIST.

LESSON TEXT—Matt. 11:2-9.
GOLDEN TEXT—"Among them that are born of women there is none greater than John; yet he that is little in the kingdom of God is greater than he."—Luke 7:28.

This is the last lesson with the exception of one that we are to have upon the character of John the Baptist. Following the imprisonment of John by Herod, Jesus, for diplomatic reasons, made Capernaum his headquarters, and it was in Galilee that his great popular ministry was performed. Meanwhile John is shut up in the fortress at Machaerus, on the east side of the Dead sea. For one who had been so intensely active to be obliged to sit idly by and wait while another's name and fame increases daily was a severe test of faith. His prototype, Elijah, had to meet a similar testing (1 Kings 19: 3, 4); why, therefore, need we wonder that doubts should arise in the mind of the greatest "born of woman?" Not one of us at all familiar with the experiences of life and the subtlety of temptation will be surprised when under these circumstances we read of John's question, v. 26. This doubt is so natural that it bears upon its very face the stamp of being genuine and that the record was not fabricated. It is noticeable in the form of John's question that he had no doubt as to the character of Jesus, the genuineness of his miracles, nor any question but that he was sent of God, but still he questioned, "Is this the Messiah?"

John was not envious (John 3:27-36), he was too great a man to be that, but yet Jesus had not wielded the ax as he had expected, hence the messenger to Jesus and this frank question. John sets us the good example of taking his doubts to Jesus, and Jesus in a most tender way answers his doubting and at the same time turns it to his own advantage in confirming his claims as the Messiah.

John Sought Not His Own Glory.

The second half of the lesson is the tribute of Jesus to the life and character of John the Baptist. Jesus has, as we have just seen, sent his word of comfort and cheer to John when he turns to the multitudes with a highly eulogistic testimony as to John's work, his worth and his greatness. True, his faith seemed to be shaken for the moment, but John was not a "reed shaken of the wind," indeed not. John was not a man seeking his own glory (Luke 3:16) nor his own comfort (Matt. 3:1, 4). He was not clad sumptuously (Luke 7:25). No, John was a prophet, a man sent, commissioned, inspired of God. He had authority to speak for God (Luke 1:16, 26) in declaring God's will to man. Yes, John is all of this and more, for he was himself the subject of Old Testament prophecy (Mal. 3:1, etc.). This John was chosen among all men to go before his face and to prepare a highway in the minds and hearts of Israel over which Jesus the Messiah might enter and begin the establishing of this new kingdom. It was in performing this service that John filled one of the highest offices ever filled by man. In this eulogy we need to recall the difference in the miraculous births of these two men. John supernaturally born of natural parentage, Jesus supernaturally born of woman but conceived of the Holy Spirit, hence the words of Jesus are to be understood that among purely human beings "none greater was born of woman."

Went to Christ Himself.

Jesus' words in verse 15 are tremendous with import. Literally he says: "I have told you these things about John and about my kingdom, now you who have ears have an obligation resting upon you because of what I have told you." There was need of their understanding and accepting an important teaching, but the unreasonable Scribes and Pharisees would accept neither the austere John nor the more social Jesus. John would not join in their gaiety. Jesus mourned not but led a more joyous life, yet they rejected him also. This "Son of Man," not of a man nor the man but son of man, of humanity, known as friend of the needy and the outcast, is himself cast out by the religious leaders of his time. Nevertheless in the wisdom of God (Luke 11:49) both John the Baptist, and Jesus the Son of man and of Mary, have been sent and the results of their lives and of their teachings prove them to be a part of God's wise plan. God's wisdom is justified (v. 19) by its workings or as some translate it by its "children."

Great as was John the forerunner, yet he that is in this newer kingdom Jesus came to establish is vastly greater than the old Hebrewism.

One of the six Panama commissioners was, a few years ago, a cub reporter at five dollars per week, and during that time was much perplexed over the problems of the Christian life and tormented by his doubts. Four successive nights he discussed the matter with his pastor; on the fifth he came with radiant face to inform his pastor that all his questioning was settled for, and he, "I went to Christ himself."

A Social Movement.

In an unusually broad and far-sightedness editorial, the Toledo Blade in a few lines practically sounds the keynote of the public health campaign. Commenting on a circular recently issued by one of the life insurance companies, the Blade says: "The conservation of public life is becoming a great social question, one in which society is taking over responsibilities and functions left hitherto in the hands of the individual. The Journal of the American Medical association says, that this sums up the entire situation and also indicates the cause for the marked change taking place in the attitude of the public toward the prevention of disease. Previous to our present knowledge regarding the transmission of contagious diseases, sickness was largely a personal matter between the patient, the family and the physician. In cases in which the fact but not the manner of contagion was known, local health officials could quarantine the patient and prevent others from coming into contact with him. Until thirty-five years ago, however, no one knew exactly what caused the various contagious diseases or how this cause was transmitted from one individual to another. Today, we know that yellow fever and malarial are transmitted by the mosquito, bubonic plague by the rat and the flea, hookworm disease through infected soil, typhoid fever through contaminated water or milk, or by flies or personal contact; tuberculosis, diphtheria and other contagious diseases through the discharges of patients. Disease is no longer a matter which concerns the individual alone. All the conditions of life and of living into the causation or suppression of disease. Many of these factors are beyond the control of the individual. They can be controlled only by society, acting in an orderly and effective manner, that is by the state. As a result most of the effective measures for public health of recent years have been more largely social and economical than medical. School inspection, tenement houses inspection and reform, improved conditions in workshops, stores and factories, efforts to secure pure food, pure water and pure milk for the community, free parks and playgrounds, municipal baths—all these, although not medical in the old sense of the word, are primarily for the health of the individual and of the community. Yet they are all of them possible only through the collective efforts of the state or of the municipality. The Blade is right in characterizing the public health movement as a great social movement, and in predicting "a broad and enormously endowed campaign for the preservation of public health leading to free aid for all and the building of insurmountable barriers against disease."

Mosquito Scourge.

The mosquito bite may hold a thousand malaria germs. A rain barrel full of water—a house full of mosquitoes. One tomato can full of water may produce a thousand mosquitoes. Stagnant water in the eaves of the roofs makes mosquitoes; mosquitoes make sickness; sickness makes doctors' bills. When you clean up the yard—front and back—to make the place look tidy and be ready to respond to the awakening of summer, don't overlook the mosquito's breeding place. Mosquitoes have been discovered to be practically the sole agency by which malarial is transmitted. If you never are bitten by a mosquito you probably will never have malarial, which,

Sam Sanderson Says:

The the Merchants Association acts like it could come back.

by the way, is not a harmless disease as many think but a dangerous one that is likely to lead to serious or fatal illness.

Mosquitoes grow in stagnant water—not necessarily in big swamps and marshes either but in almost any still water, even if it's no more than can be held by a curled up dead leaf or an old tomato can. If you would be free of mosquitoes, don't allow water to stand anywhere about the yard, in pools, cans, barrels old buckets or the eaves of the roof.

If you have a cistern or a "rain barrel" keep it tightly screened. Don't allow pools of water to stand in the yard or gutter or street after a rain. If you can't drain the water off pour a little kerosene on it. That will kill every mosquito egg in it and prevent others forming. If the water stays on the ground, renew the kerosene about every ten days.

Mosquitoes can't fly very far, and consequently never get very far from their breeding place. If you and your neighbors see to it that your own yards and the immediate neighborhood are free of stagnant water, your mosquito troubles will be few and far between. As a last preventative—for flies as well as mosquitoes—keep your doors and windows tightly screened.

There has been no great complaint of fraudulent voting in Indiana. There may be an instance or two where illegal votes have been cast but if so the matter has not attracted public attention. The registration law therefore was not a crying need. It will cost the taxpayers of the state over two hundred thousand dollars. And this burden will fall mostly on the farmers, who do not need the law at all. There is no illegal voting in the country, where everyone knows every one else. In addition to this every farmer is compelled to lose part of a day, driving several miles, perhaps, to register. He not only loses his time and takes his team from work but he is taxed for the privilege. The law will not be popular in the country.

The fact has been demonstrated in Muncie several times recently that expert train jumpers and swimmers meet death now and then and that persons cannot be too careful. Twice within a week railroad men have met death in Muncie as the result of being ground to pieces under the wheels of trains. It is foolish to take a dare while swimming. At a certain bathing place near Muncie a few days ago several boys entered into a contest to see which could swim across White river the greatest number of times. After crossing the stream five or six times two of the boys dropped exhausted. It is while a person is in this condition that cramps are most likely to develop. There is no bravery in accepting a dare that may mean death.

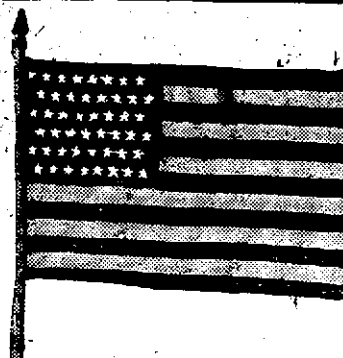

The commercial travelers of Indiana, having made a heroic war against the tipping evil, and not having won a victory, are now resolving that there ought to be a law forbidding tips under penalties for violation. But where drummers fail, how can any law hope to win? It is a hard case, and must remain so until we get back to where we once were, when people with more sense than money outnumber the people with more money than sense.

It seems now that there will really be a National Democratic Convention at Baltimore. Col. John I. Martin has appeared on the scene. Here-to-fore, in the noise of the Chicago conflict we have at times thought the Baltimore convention might turn out to be a dream.

Nine times out of ten there is so little contest for the vice presidential nomination that the conventions are glad to select an amiable rather than an aggressive candidate.

OLD GLORY

"Oh, Long May It Wave;
O'er the Land of the Free,
And the Home of the Brave."

It was during the war of 1812, the centenary of whose beginning will be celebrated on June 18, that "The Star Spangled Banner" was written. The British had already sacked and burned the government buildings in Washington and on their return had attempted to take Baltimore, in which they were defeated. Francis Scott Key was aboard a ship in the Chesapeake during the bombardment. On seeing the American flag still aloft in the morning he wrote the song. Several claims have been made as to the origin of the flag. The matter is not settled. The symbolism is better known. The stripes stand for the thirteen original colonies, the stars for the states. As to the color scheme, the generally accepted version is that the blue stands for the heavens, to which the colonies made their appeal; the white represents purity, and the red is emblematic of liberty.

Editorialettes.

Little drops of water go a long ways some times. As for instance, those that fell this morning must have stirred some dozen or so stalks of corn to strive toward maturity.

"They say that when a fellow lies to a girl," exclaims the Newcastle Courier rather excitedly, "she ought to be warned that he might do something worse. 'Stung, ole top, or has somebody been tellin' her false tales about you.'"

Up at Kokomo they have been trying to enforce a new vehicle ordinance and at least a hundred have been arrested for cutting corners. There's really not much use in mentioning that in this Column, only just to prove that anything is liable to happen in Kokomo.

In our anxiety for summer to come we forgot all about the month of June and the wedding presents that go.

And the mosquitoes, too. They are a bothersome lot. Even at that this Column will enter a strenuous objection to any unsportsman like methods in killing them. Swat them. They are entitled to a run for their money just like the fly.

The remark of a certain newspaper which we will not mention today that the tune the old cow died on is a song of the fodder land is a bit hard to get, we must confess.

We feel downright sorry for that Connersville ball team that's coming over here Sunday.

We need a little more rain, too.

AMUSEMENTS

The Princess has for the first picture a Lubin drama "Shall Never Hunger." Arthur Johnson is featured in this picture. The other is a Selig feature entitled "Dark Feather's Strategy." It is said to be a thrilling western drama.

The Portola offers an extra good program tonight showing three reels of pictures. "The Punishment" is the title of the first. It is a Biograph drama. "Pathe Weekly No. 14" is the second picture. The Vitagraph drama entitled "The Unknown Violinist" concludes the program.

Having scored an unqualified success in "A Woman's Way," the first production of the summer stock season at the Murat Theater in Indianapolis, the Murat Players will present for their second week's bill a still lighter and still more humorous play, the farce entitled "Billy."

"Billy" is founded on the most ludicrous situation imaginable. The entire farce hangs around a set of false teeth. Billy Hargrave, a football player, gets hit in the mouth in a scrimmage on the gridiron, and loses four of his front teeth. He has always been a chap proud of his good looks and he feels the loss of these personal ornaments most keenly. To make matters worse, he is in love with a pretty girl, who is proud of the handsomeness of her hero.

Billy gives out the information that he is badly hurt and secludes himself from the world, denying himself to his sweetheart most of all. His sister only is in his confidence. A dentist is procured and set to work to make a new set of teeth for Billy. At last Billy is presentable again, but he assumes the role of a weak convalescent in order to carry out his former deception. A sea trip is proposed, and Billy and his sister, Billy's sweetheart, the sweetheart's mother, and of no less importance Billy's rival for the hand and heart of the girl find themselves on the ocean in the same vessel.

During the sea voyage the farce situation develops fast and furious. Billy's rival has told the girl of mysterious midnight excursions of Billy with a woman during the time he was supposed to be hovering between life and death. As a matter of fact these excursions were very innocent: Billy was only taking needed exercise, accompanied by his sister. But the girl's suspicions are aroused, and the mysterious actions of Billy himself on board the boat a little later furnish damaging evidence.

FLAG DAY OBSERVED HERE

"Old Glory" Was Displayed From Many Homes.

There was a general observance of Flag day in this city, although there was no special occurrence or ceremony. Flags were floated to the breeze in the residence district and as usual Jabez Smith, custodian at the court house, had many flags out. Of late years Flag day has come to be observed in a more general way and from the number displayed today the custom seems to be growing in favor.

An eight and a half pound girl was born to the wife of Elmer Frasher at their home in West Fourth street this morning. Mrs. Frasher was formerly Miss Ruby Norris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Norris.

Case Against Alleged Speeder Heard This Afternoon in Squire Kratzer's Court.

MANY WITNESSES CALLED

Paul Offutt, charged with violating the speed limit as defined in the State law, was tried before a jury in Squire Kratzer's court this afternoon. A motion to quash the affidavit was overruled and Attorney T. M. Offutt asked for a jury trial. Chief McAllister was the first witness. He stated that in his judgment Offutt was running the automobile in East Second street between Main and Perkins street at a rate of speed to exceed 30 miles an hour.

Thomas Scanlan testified that Offutt was running over 8 miles an hour in South Main street. Many witnesses had been called for both sides and the case will not be completed until a late hour. Albert Stevens represented the State.

LET US SHOW YOU NO-RIM-CUT TIRES

You are undoubtedly convinced that you should use No-Rim-Cut tires. Every motorist has read about No-Rim-Cut tires again and again in the magazines and newspapers. You have read how the 10 per cent oversize and No-Rim-Cut features cut tire bills in two. You have wanted these tires. They are here now. Let us show you.

NO-RIM-CUT FEATURE

No-Rim-Cut tires have six tapes of 128 braided wires in the base, making the base absolutely unstretchable. Nothing can force the tire out of the rim channel. A hooked base is not necessary to hold the No-Rim-Cut tire on. The hooked side of the rings are turned away from the tire. Then the tire, when deflated, rests on the rounded side of the rings. Rim-Cutting is impossible.

10 PER CENT OVERSIZE

When a car is overloaded the tires get that extra strain. That hastens breakdowns—means blowouts. No-Rim-Cut tires are made 10 per cent oversize to provide for overload. The construction allows that. That oversize means 10 per cent more air—10 per cent more carrying capacity. That oversize saves all that overloading costs. Consider these features and what they save the motorists. No-Rim-Cut tires cost no more than standard clincher tires. Why shouldn't you adopt No-Rim-Cut tires. Come and see them and you will.

Eye Troubles

Brief spells of dizziness, pains in the brow and temples come from eyestrain. Glasses correctly fitted—perhaps just to wear while reading, studying, sewing, or other close work may be all that's required for permanent relief.

Taken in time the constant wearing of glasses is avoided. Delay means serious eye trouble later on, expensive and painful operation or the loss of vision.

Fathers:

Looking back, it doesn't seem so very long ago since you were growing into manhood, does it?

Do you know how much you would have in this bank now, had you begun in boyhood days to save but $2.00 a month.

Let your boys figure out this problem, the results will be an inspiration to your boys to save.

The wonderful workings of compound interest makes an interesting story and fathers should see that their boys have savings accounts at this bank.

LOCAL GIRLS WALK 18 MILES

Pauline Felts and Margery Geraghty Take a Forenoon Stroll, Going to Connersville.

IN LESS THAN SEVEN HOURS

Officers Meet Them at City Limits, Thinking They are Runaways— Say They Enjoyed It.

A forenoon stroll of eighteen miles would perhaps seem more than enough to two young ladies of average strength and spirit, says the Connersville News. But Misses Pauline Felts and Margery Geraghty of Rushville are not in the class whose strength and spirit can truthfully be described as ordinary. They took the walk, and found it very pleasant, too.

Several days ago the two, who are as winsome a couple of damsels as could well be found, arose early and walked to Arlington, which is a good little way to the west of Rushville. They rode back home on a traction car and had a pleasant time.

Wednesday they resolved upon an expedition of greater scope. In pursuance of this resolution they set forth on foot, exactly at five o'clock Thursday morning for Connersville. The roads were dusty and the sun was rather warm, but they did not care. The middle of the forenoon found them in Glenwood, where they ate a little lunch they had brought along with them. Just at half past eleven o'clock they came across the city limits of Connersville, having walked the whole way, though they had a number of kindly invitations to ride. They were a little tired, but utterly well, and elated over the thing they had done.

Some one who lived in Rushville met the girls about six miles this side of that city this morning and asked them where they were going. They did not think it was necessary for him to know the whole truth so they said they were running away to Connersville. This he took seriously, and went so far as to telephone to the local police, saying that two runaway girls would arrive here about midday. An officer was waiting at the west corporation line when the fair pedestrians came in, but a laughing explanation set the matter right. The young ladies were guests of Mrs. Robert Gillespie, to whom Miss Felts is related, yesterday afternoon.

Handi-Craft Exhibit

There is being shown in the window of George C. Wyatt & Company's store a very interesting display of Art Handi-Craft, the work of pupils of Mrs. Ada Williams of the Studio Shop of Cincinnati. The samples show good design and clever execution. Mrs. Williams is now in Rushville at Mrs. Smiley's home in North Harrison street, and will be pleased to talk to all interested in stenciling, basketry, metal work, book binding, leather work, the making of jewelry and any branch of porch craft work. 8042

The Jesse Pugh company comes Tuesday for a two days' stay. This company is headed by Mr. Pugh. The additional members are two soloists, both women. One is a soprano and accompanist and the other is a violin soloist. Their program is made up of solos and readings by Mr. Pugh, duets by Mr. Pugh and the soprano, solos by the violinist, and numbers by the entire company. They will give a complete concert Wednesday evening.

Nothing definite is announced for Wednesday afternoon but it is highly probable that another course lecturer besides Prof. Pearson will be employed.

Thursday afternoon Mrs. Lenore M. Lake will give her lecture on "The Divine Right of the Child." She is said to be the most gifted woman speaker today. It will be the first time in the history of Rush county chautauqua that a woman has appeared here as a lecturer. It is declared by persons who have seen and heard Mrs. Lake that she is one of a hundred among women speakers.

Thursday the Kellogg-Haines singing party comes for two days. The company will give the program on Thursday evening. The Kellogg-Haines company stands pre-eminently above most of the concert companies on the chautauqua circuits. It consists of five people, all of whom are gifted soloists and instrumentalists. They reproduce scenes from grand opera with telling effect. They are said to excel the grand opera company that was here last year when Rushville people got their first taste of grand opera on a local platform.

Friday afternoon Gov. Hoch of Kansas will deliver one of his number of celebrated lectures. The one selected for Rushville is "A Message From Kansas." Gov. Hoch is in great demand on the chautauqua platform, and if he had not been employed by the Rushville committee last fall, it is highly probable that he ever could have been procured for a lecture here.

Friday night Ralph Bingham, a humorist of recognized ability, will furnish the entertainment. He needs little introduction in Rushville. It is Ralph Bingham who is considered the premier fun maker of the Lyceum stage. He has been honored several times by being selected to conduct the "fun night" at Winona when Lyceum talent meet there for a frolic.

The Orpheans' male quartet comes on Saturday for the remainder of the assembly. The Orpheans not only sing but they play musical instruments of various kinds and sorts. Each member is a soloist of merit so that the four men are able to put on a diversified and entertaining program. They will probably furnish the program Saturday afternoon.

Sidney Landon, the famous caricaturist, will give the program Saturday night. He compares favorably with the "Dickens man" who was here last year and who proved to be the best impersonator ever before a Rushville audience.

The chautauqua will be closed with two lectures by a man whom most people will regard as the best of the talent. He is none other than George R. Stuart, who will lecture afternoon and night the last day of the chautauqua. His name alone insures a mammoth crowd.

—Greensburg News: Ed Fee, wife and daughter, Miss Mary of Clarksburg, were called to Augusta, Ky., today to attend the funeral of a cousin, Mrs. J. C. Norris. Mr. and Mrs. Fee and their daughters, Misses Mary and Nell, had just returned from an auto trip through Kentucky and Ohio.

AUTO HITS COW.

Carthage Citizen: While returning from Jonesboro, Jesse Newsom's car ran into a herd of cows being driven across the road by a boy, the son of a farmer living between Wilkinson and Knightstown. The car struck one cow, breaking one of her legs. She rolled under the front of the machine which had to be pried up before she could be released. The big car was not damaged in the least.

WILL A SCANDAL MARK THE END?

Well Informed Republicans Are Gravely Apprehensive.

WARFARE IS GROWING BITTER

Mutterings of Scandal, Charges and Counter Charges as to the Use of Money and Other "Practical" Inducements, Especially With Southern Delegates, Are Heard in Both Headquarters and in the Hotels.

Chicago, June 14.—A number of the best informed Republicans on this battlefield are possessed with the gravest apprehensions lest a terrific scandal shall eventually break through and envelop the bitter warfare between the Taft and the Roosevelt forces.

Mutterings of this scandal, charges and counter charges as to the use of money and other "practical" inducements, especially with southern delegates, are heard in both headquarters and in the corridors of the hotels and clubs. The Roosevelt men are well aware that by the time the national committee ends its investigation of the contests on Saturday night President Taft will have a paper majority of thirty-four. That majority of thirty-four must be wiped out by the Roosevelt forces if they are to win.

In addition the Roosevelt chieftains must get many more votes than these thirty-four if they are to be victorious, for the reason that Senator La Follette with the twenty-six votes of Wisconsin and the ten votes of North Dakota, and Senator Cummins with the ten votes of Iowa at their back, must be conciliated.

Senator Cummins is an out-and-out candidate for the presidential nomination. He believes this convention is to be so deadlocked that he will eventually run off with the prize. Senator La Follette and his thirty-six votes will never go over to Roosevelt, according to the best information. The Taft men already are working day and night to prevent desertions from their ranks. The Roosevelt campaigners are working just as industriously to dissipate that paper majority of thirty-four.

The Taft chieftains believe that even if President Taft's paper majority of thirty-four is wiped out by the Roosevelt inroads and Taft's nomination is prevented on the first ballot, La Follette's thirty-six will go over to Taft on the second ballot and thus bring about the president's renomination. The Roosevelt forces, replying to this, declare that if the president is not nominated on the first ballot no power on earth could prevent enough desertions from him to the Roosevelt camp to bring about Roosevelt's nomination on the second ballot.

On every street corner, in every spot where the politicians congregate, you hear tales of the use of money and bribes in the shape of federal preferment. The closeness of the contest between Taft and Roosevelt has necessarily emphasized this talk of bribery and corruption. It is this talk that has induced the best informed authorities here to express apprehension lest a dreadful scandal shall become the paramount feature of this situation.

The market rate heard on all sides for prospective members of the committee on credentials was $5,000. This is only a sample of the talk of the use of money that overhangs the situation. It may be stated right here and now that squads of detectives have been employed by both the Taft and Roosevelt forces to keep track of each other. Out of the muck and mire, out of all the controversial problems, there is ascending more and more the talk, not of a compromise candidate to come of this convention, but that a harmony candidate shall be chosen. The names of Associate Justice Hughes, ex-Governor Frank S. Black of New York, ex-Vice President Fairbanks of Indiana, and Robert T. Lincoln were some of those mentioned.

Free prophecies are made here today that Colonel Roosevelt is coming to Chicago. The men who are closest to him and know his present intentions are those who say he surely will be at the convention. "You won't be far wrong if you say he is coming," said a friend of the colonel. "It cannot be announced as a fact, but there is mighty little doubt about it."

A big Roosevelt mass meeting in the Auditorium theater is on the books for Monday night, and the colonel is expected to be the principal attraction. The men who have the meeting in charge are Medill McCormick, Alexander H. Revell, manager of the Roosevelt western department, and Congressman William Kent of California.

How the Contest Stands.

Chicago, June 14.—When the Republican national committee adjourned for the day last evening the number of contested delegates which had been awarded to President Taft was 158, and to Theodore Roosevelt 14. Yesterday the committee gave Mr. Taft eleven district delegates in Mississippi and six district delegates in Missouri, or a total of seventeen for the day, while the committee awarded one district delegate to Colonel Roosevelt in Mississippi, the four delegates-at-large and four district delegates in Missouri and four district delegates in North Carolina.

HAS NO FAITH IN THE SINCERITY OF GOMEZ

Cuban Administration Getting In Bad at Washington.

Washington, June 14.—Each day faith in the sincerity of the Cuban government in the present crisis in the republic is lessening in Washington. The news that General Montenegro has extended the amnesty to the negro rebels has strengthened the conviction here that the Gomez government is bidding for peace and will consent to deal with the negroes. That General Montenegro should at this stage of the proceedings give the negroes until June 22 to lay down their arms and receive full pardon is regarded here as preposterous.

Playing for Position.

The charge is made here that President Gomez is playing for a position from which he can ask the consent of the United States for a loan to his government. Time and again since the first days of the negro revolt the Cuban government has named "ten days" as the limit of the life of the uprising. The state department, however, has yet to receive concrete proof of a determined effort upon the part of the Gomez government to put down the uprising.

Reports are being given out daily to describe the encounters between the government soldiers and the rebels. Yet there is no evidence that a single rebel leader has been killed or captured, or even that any one of them has been pursued or attacked. Meanwhile the United States is using men and ships to do what it is the place of the Cuban government to do.

Ugly Rumors Afloat.

Frankfort, Ind., June 14.—On motion of Prosecutor Guenther, Judge Combs ordered the April grand jury to reconvene. It is reported that the jury will make an investigation concerning the recent fire at Rossville, in which property to the value of $50,000 was destroyed, there being ugly rumors afloat since the fire.

He Was Out of Work.

Shelbyville, Ind., June 14.—Orlando Moore, aged sixty-six, a blacksmith, of Rays Crossing, committed suicide by hanging himself in a shed. His feet were dangling on the ground when his body was discovered by his stepson. He was despondent because he was out of work and lost all his possessions.

Surprised Court Officials.

Richmond, Ind., June 14.—Dell Hulls, fifty years old, arrested on a charge of attacking two little girls, was sentenced to the Indiana prison for a term of from two to fourteen years. Hulls surprised the court officials by breaking down and asked to be permitted to enter a plea of guilty.

Fell Through Hatchway.

Evansville, Ind., June 14.—William Neubeck, aged thirty-six, fell through a hatchway at the plant of the Heitman machine works here and was instantly killed.

MAY PROVE FATAL

When Will Rushville People Learn the Importance of it?

Backbone is only a simple thing at first;

But when you know 'tis from the kidneys;

That serious kidney troubles follow;

That dropsy, Bright's disease may be the fatal end,

You will gladly profit by the following experience.

'Tis the statement of a Rushville citizen.

George Priest, 223 West Third St., Rushville, Ind., says: "I was bothered by attacks of kidney trouble for several years and as time passed my condition became worse. There was dull pains directly over my kidneys and I had spells of dizziness and weakness. My sight often became blurred and I knew that something must be done. Three years ago Doan's Kidney Pills were brought to my attention and were so highly recommended that I got a box at F. B. Johnson & Co.'s Drug Store. They proved to be the best kidney medicine I had ever taken and in a short time had relieved me. On several occasions during the past three years, I have taken Doan's Kidney Pills and they have always given entire satisfaction."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

The general tendency throughout all branches of trade is to have a fixed established standard valuation upon various productions. The dealer's profit is a legitimate and necessary one; it must be borne by all people, and the middleman is justly entitled to the same.
We herewith quote a reasonable, just and proper set of prices, at which the products of the Jesse French & Sons Piano Factory should be sold. The dealer's profit at these prices is not in any way exorbitant. At the same time fair to the dealer as well as to the customer, and we STRONGLY URGED that all French dealers use these prices with their trade, adding to them the freight to the point of delivery.

Street Mashers at Valparaiso Up Against It.

HUSBANDS HAVE ORGANIZED

Wives of the Members of the Valparaiso Athletic Club Volunteer as Decoys For Light-Brained Johnnies in College Town, and When the Masher Steps Forth With His Talk, He Is Met by Husband.

Valparaiso, Ind., June 14.—The members of the Valparaiso Athletic club, an organization of young married people, have started a campaign to exterminate the street masher in this city, following ineffectual attempts of the police to break up the practice of accosting unaccompanied women. The wives of the members are used as decoys for the mashers. They traverse singly the haunts of the "Johnnies," with their husbands within easy reach. As soon as a masher steps forth with his talk, the husbands hurry forward, seize the fellow and administer a hearty beating. Since the club took up this plan, June 1, five have been roughly handled.

SAVES PASSENGER TRAIN

Boy Finds Burning Pole Leaning Toward Railroad Tracks.

Connersville, Ind., June 14.—A young child thwarted what is believed to have been an attempt to wreck a southbound Big Four train. Sinks Tatman, the eight-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Tatman, was riding in an automobile with his uncle, George W. Ansted, along the Milton road, north of the city, when he saw a flicker of light in a clump of dense bushes close by the track. He cried out that he saw a fire, and his uncle halted the car and investigated.

As he entered the clump of bushes a man sprang up and hurried away. A fire was burning at the base of a big telegraph pole, confined to a point close to the ground by strips of tin, wrapped around the pole. The pole was burned nearly off, and a prop was set against it toward the railroad track. The prop was removed, the pole sagged the other way, broke and fell, and two minutes later a Big Four train passed.

Will Test Headlight Law

Indianapolis, June 14.—Judge Vinson Carter made a ruling in the case of the Vandalia Railroad company against the Indiana railroad commission, in which he held that the commission had power under the law to order the installation by railroads in Indiana of electric or other power headlights on their road service locomotives. Attorneys for the Vandalia gave notice of appeal to the supreme court.

IDEAL SILO

Do you know that the cheapest and best Silo and the one that has stood the test for fifteen years, and in the community where they are used, they will not use anything else, is the Silo that the farmer can get at the lumber yard; buy the lumber and cement and have it constructed the same as he would if he were building a house or barn. It is substantial, strong, air proof, cemented on the inside with no wood exposed on the inside and no hoops or iron bands outside that require loosening or tightening according to the conditions of the weather.

These Silos are being used wherever introduced almost exclusively and there is no patent or commission men to pay, you simply go to the lumber yard, buy your lumber the same as you would to build a house. We will furnish you free of charge a blue print plan and specifications and any carpenter or person handy with tools can put up a Silo.

We can furnish you any number of references, including Van Camp Packing Co., who have two very large ones near Martinsville and Mr. Mason, Supt., Polk's Milk Receiving Station at Mooresville, Ind., both of which have large Dairy interests and have had experience with all kinds of Silos.

If you are contemplating building a Silo, it will pay you to investigate the frame and cement plastered Silo. We made a special trip to Martinsville and Mooresville for that purpose and saw quite a number, some of which had been in use for several years, and have no hesitance in saying that we believe that they are the best Silo made and that you will be of the same opinion when you have seen them.

Call at office and see specification. Yours truly,

POURED $70,000,000 INTO BANKERS' LAPS

The Government's Part in the Panic of 1907.

New York, June 14.—The part that the government took in allaying the panic of 1907 by sending $12,000,000 to national banks in this city and $28,000,000 to banks in other parts of the country, was explained to the "money trust" probers by Geo. Cortelyou, president of the Consolidated Gas company, former secretary of the treasury. He told of a conference he had while a member of the cabinet in New York on the evening of Oct. 22, 1907, with New York bankers at the Hotel Manhattan. At this meeting he said he gave his word to the bankers that he would do all that he possibly could to bring about relief in the financial situation. He then issued a statement, he said, as a result of the conferences that the government would at once put $25,000,000 at the disposal of the New York banks in addition to $6,000,000 which he had ordered on Oct. 22 sent to many banks. He declared that nothing was agreed upon in the conferences exactly where the money was to go, neither was there any differentiation between strictly commercial business and relieving the tightness of the money market on the stock exchange.

Mr. Cortelyou could not remember some of the details of placing the money in the banks. He explained that the $25,000,000 he sent to the New York banks was not necessarily the same money that was loaned on the exchange, saying that at least $10,000,000 of the amount, it was understood, was intended for the relief of trust companies. He said altogether $26,000,000 of government funds had been used at that time for the relief of banks and trust companies. The principal relief work, he admitted, was carried on by Mr. Morgan.

The committee then adjourned sine die, the future meetings to take place in Washington.

MERCHANTS HAPPY OVER REJUVENATED ORGANIZATION

ed very good to him, and that the Association under that name had accomplished much and there was no reason why it should not do greater things.

Lewis Sexton was asked for his opinion, and he replied that he could see no necessity for changing the cognomen of the Association.

Sherman Oneal agreed with the two speakers before him. He said that the only thing needed was an active campaign for members. He suggested that a letter be sent to all persons who have business interests calling their attention to the fact that the association was looking after the welfare of Rushville. This idea met with favor and was later adopted.

Anthony Schrieft, former president of the Association, believed, as he has for some time, that the name should be changed. He said last night that the opinion had become a fixed one in the minds of the people generally that the Rushville Retail Merchants Association was organized to boost prices and look after the interests of the retail merchants first last and always. He declared that the public should know better, but that the idea was current anyway. He said that any member who had attended the meeting regularly as he had knew that such a thing as a plan to maintain good prices or boost them was never discussed in the meetings.

Roy Jones thought the present name good enough. He expressed the idea that all the members needed was a little ginger to keep from becoming rusty and falling in a rut.

F. E. Wolcott took up the idea first suggested by Sherman Oneal, and said that he thought the idea expressed that circular letters be sent out was a good one. He said the letter should point out what the organization had already accomplished and what it expected to do in the future. He thought every person who has property interests here should be solicited because when Rushville advances the property values will also advance.

Mrs. Maude Reed Wolcott, the only woman member of the association, suggested that while circular letters were being sent out, that some be sent to women, as many of her sex, she said, were interested in the future of Rushville.

Anthony Schrieft was out with a big boost for "Big Wednesday" when that topic was brought up for discussion. He said the great value of the bargain day was that it got people in the habit of coming to Rushville, and that was the best asset of any institution.

President Hackman, however, asked for more opinions on changing the name of the association before the bargain topic was discussed. Earl H. Payne said he saw no necessity for making a change. He said it would require a new incorporation.

Harvey M. Cowing declared that the name was good enough for him, and that he could see no reason for making a change.

Lewis Sexton said there was little in a name anyway. He pointed out that with all the members working a great many things of value can be accomplished.

Upon the suggestion of the president that the plan to send out letters soliciting new members be put in the form of a motion, Mr. Wolcott made such a motion and it was passed unanimously. It was eventually decided that the new membership committee meet tonight and that each member should present a form of a letter. A letter will be made up of the best of the combined lot. The committee will start out after new members as soon as the letters have been mailed.

George Pantouney, secretary, reported that he had received a card from D. Ward King, inventor of the famous King road drag, who wished to come here and lecture on the good roads movement. He has been appearing in various parts of the State recently. This appealed to the members of the association and the secretary was instructed to correspond with Mr. King and see if satisfactory arrangements could not be made with Mr. King for him to come here under the auspices of the association.

Communications from several concerns who are looking for new locations were read and referred to the industrial committee.

The voices of approval for "Big Wednesday" were heard all over the room when the question of holding another "Big Wednesday" was brought up. It was suggested that one be held every third Wednesday this summer. That met with general approval so long as the date does not conflict with some other event already planned for Rushville.

It was moved that the first one be held the second Wednesday in July, which is the tenth. The sentiment was expressed that there would not be time enough to prepare for one by the last Wednesday in this month and that it would not be well to hold one the first Wednesday in July as that was the day before the Fourth when the Red Men will hold a big pow-wow here.

It was suggested by one member that the motion picture shows not be thrown open to the public in general as they were on bargain days last year. It was deemed the wisest plan and this was finally taken by consent after considerable argument, that tickets for admission to the amusement houses should be apportioned to the business men in accordance with the amount they gave toward defraying the expenses of the day.

There was some talk of changing the meeting night, but nothing definite was done. Some members thought many were kept away on Thursday night and that the night of meeting should be changed to Wednesday.

Tom Offutt told the merchants that he had been in correspondence with several railroad industrial agents and that they had asked for maps of probable factory sites here. He said that a number of concerns were anxious to locate here because of the excellent shipping facilities. He was advised to confer with the industrial committee.

President Hackman said several Red Men had asked him if the merchants of the city would not close their stores the Fourth of July on account of the big powwow which is to be held here.

It was eventually agreed that this should be left to the merchant to do as he pleased. It is likely most stores will close in the afternoon because of the program at the fair ground.

President Hackman said that he had been informed Ringling Brothers circus was seeking a winter home, and that a letter had been written to a real estate man here. Several members said this would be a good institution to locate here and it is likely some effort will be made to get it.

It was reported to the meeting that a very reliable Indianapolis concern was seeking a location in a small city and might be induced to come to Rushville. The industrial committee will investigate.

The following permanent committees were named by President Hackman:

City Interest—R. C. Hargrove, Homer Havens, George C. Wyatt, J. D. Case and A. P. Wagoner.

COMMISSIONERS ALL POWERFUL

Indiana Supreme Court Says Board Can Act on Own Motion in Revoking Licenses.

CHARGES ARE UNNECESSARY

The Indiana supreme court in a recent decision holds that the board of county commissioners of a county may, on its own initiative and without charges being filed by another person, revoke the liquor licenses of an applicant who violated the law. Under the decision of the court the board of county commissioners of any county in the State may proceed on its own motion to call before it a license and summarily determine the question of revocation or suspension of licenses, without waiting for charges by other persons; a voter also may put the proceedings in motion by action and notice as in the case of charges by the board of commissioners. The proceedings before the board in either case are subject to review on appeal, it is held.
